Other information

Pitch access - Spectators will be able to access the outfield at the tea break during Rothesay County Championship fixtures taking place at Emirates Old Trafford.

Every effort will be made to allow access on each fixture, please be aware that there may be occasions when access won't be possible. This may include weather affected days. We will keep spectators informed on the status of pitch access on the day.

We kindly request that spectators don't take any food or drink onto the outfield and keep a distance from the square and any players training. Any breaches may result in pitch access being reviewed.

Lancashire cricket store will be open from gates opening until close of play each day.

Library in the Cricket Centre open before play from 10am and during innings break. There is also a large amount of second-hand cricket books and editions of Wisden for sale.
